

Weekend Getaway

Saturday

Morning

Begin the day at Major Bean Coffee & Sandwich Shop, sipping on their signature coffees or iced chai latte and nibbling on hot apple & cinnamon crepes or bacon & cheddar layered bagels. Take in the scenery of the plastered tiled tin ceilings, exposed brick, and vintage collectables.

Take a look in the past at the National Rt. 66 Museum and Complex. Walk through displays of antique cars and historical documents that tell the story of America's Mother Road. Then celebrate Oklahoma's agricultural heritage at The Farm & Ranch Museum. View how blacksmiths created ironworks at The Blacksmith Museum. After viewing the windmill collection and getting a better appreciation of early pioneering technology, visit Old Town Museum for a taste of pioneer living.

Lunch

Add a taste of mama's home cooking to your weekend at the Country Dove and Tea Room. Established in 1983, this 2-story cottage has rooms full of antiques, arts & crafts and religious books. And don't forget desserts, like Dori's New York Cheesecake or the signature French Silk Pie.

Afternoon

Tee off at the Elk City Golf Course south of town. This 18-hole, par 71 scenic course challenges every skill level. After golfing, mosey downtown for vintage treasures at Rust Revival.

Elk City has more boutique shops per downtown block than any other town for miles around. Stroll Elk City's downtown retail district and find clothing shops unique to Red Dirt Living at The Crooked Spur Boutique, Backdoor Boutique, Velvet Moon, or The Vogue Boutique just to name a few.

Evening

If classic Mexican specialties are what you crave, look no further than Pedro's Mexican Grille. Pedro's is located along Rt. 66 and includes "The Location" cantina in the back of the restaurant. Satisfy your thirst with local favorites or signature mixed drinks. Or choose another restaurant from our dining guide beginning on page 11.

The Centerpiece of recreation and sports in Elk City is Ackley Park. With over 6 acres of family activities, Ackley Park is a local favorite and a gem of Western Oklahoma. Ackley Park is home to the Centennial Carousel with 36 hand carved wooden horses and 2 chariots. Visitors can hop a ride on the Choctaw Miniature Train, putt around on the 18 hole Old Town miniature golf course, or stroll to the skate park. It'll be a lot of fun for your entire family. As the Sun begins to fade, take in a gorgeous sunset while standing on the bridge next to the Centennial Lighthouse.

Sunday

Breakfast

Plate-size pancakes will satisfy your appetite at the Cowboy Café. Or choose another restaurant from our dining guide beginning on Page 11.

Morning

A round of Disc Golf at Elk Lake's 18-Basket Course would be a lot of fun. With 750 acres to roam, the lake area is ideal for hiking, mountain biking, fishing, camping and photography. Explore the rugged trails and see all the animals and birds native to this area.

Lunch

Grab a bite to eat at Boomtown Grill. Choose seafood or steak and then add the Bloomin Onion appetizer or fried pickles.

Afternoon

Buckle up for a scenic drive to Washita Battle Fields National Historic Site and explore the land where the battle of Washita occurred. Explore the Visitor Center's exhibit that portrays the clash that lead up to the battle and enjoy the 27-minunet film "Destiny at Dawn." Take in the sacred scenery with the self-guided trail, overlook and two historical markers.
